

Please do not change the no call list requirements. The thought that telemarketers can call for 18 months is absurd. If we say NO the first time, we will continue to say no 17 more times. Not to mention, I will be completely turned off of this company for bugging me a year and a half. Please do not change the requirements.
Thank you.